New York Market Brief reader guide

Use with the original dated Brief

The historical Brief follows this portable reader guide. Its original publication date and selected-profile scope remain unchanged. This correction is included for entitled buyers of that same edition without an additional edition purchase. Read the following governing correction before relying on older wording. No Intelligence workbook is included with this standalone Brief.

Governing published correction

Correction dated October 5, 2026

Read with: September 26, 2026 Market Brief V1.1.

Syracuse DFR was held

The cited July 28, 2025 council agenda marks the Axon Air Remote item H/H (held). It does not establish final approval, signed execution, delivery or operating DFR service, and its term wording conflicts. This qualifies the earlier Brief's approval wording and commercial stage.

The aircraft floor is not a New York fleet total

The Brief's 20-aircraft floor combines selected agency figures with LifeNet's eleven aircraft across New York and Pennsylvania. All eleven cannot be assigned to New York. Historical, undated, ordered and grant-scope quantities are not a current ready-fleet inventory.

The Brief's earlier 22 program and 13 commercial records retain their September scope; the expanded October workbook has a different scope. Source-body access limits and unknowns remain explicit.
